THURSDAY EVENING, MAY 31, 1900.

LONG LOST WIFE APPEARS -A busband, aged 72 years, and a wife, 79 years old, after a separation of nearly 40 years, are parties in a remarkable divorce case, at Uniontown, Ps. John stored Adam Mitchell left his wife to go to the war in 1861 and only came home once in the four years he served. His wife claims he left her without support, sect her no money, and that she had to separate her children and go to house.

work to support herself.

When Muchell came home from the when Mitchell came home from the war he claims he could not find his wife, and, believing her dead, married again in 1867. The second wife and her several children are living with Mitchell now. Meanwhile the first wife has been living in Ohio and other places not ar away from her old home, and claims Mitchell, relatives home. and claims Mitchell's relatives knew where she was, and that she wrote frequently to her husband

Mrs. Mitchell No. 1 did not know that her husband had married again until she went to Haydentown, several weeks ago, to visit Mitchell's sister, and he says that was the first that he knew that she was living. He applied for a divorce, but she is resisting it, and Tues lay she had Mitchell arrested for desertion and asked the court to order him to give her part of his estate to prosecute her case and support her.

ATTACKED BY AN EAGLE. -Solomor Raup, a farmer of East Point, Pa., was attacked by a large eagle on Monday while crossing a large area that had reflow from behind him and sunk its talons into the back of his neck before he had time to defend himself. A heavy cloth hat protected his bead and eyes, but the bird pecked so violently that it pulled a wisp of hair from his head, and carried his hat aw y. It is thought the esgle's nestlings were nurned by the forest fire, and that the parent bird took revenge on the farmer when he saunt red in the neighborhood where the nest formerly was.

"After suffer 12 from piles for fifteen years was cured by ueing two boxes of Pewitt's Witch Hazel Salve," writes W. J. Baxter. North Brook, N. C. It beals everything Bewate of counterteits.

COAL AND WOOD

BY ELEVATING THE QUALITY of our coal we lower the price in economy of consumption. Consumers will find that it is consumption. Consumers will find that it is cheaper to use our high grade Lee Coal, that has been screened and freed from slate and stone, than that of an inferior grade. It gives more heat, less ashes and burns longer than any other coal, and our prices are as low as any. Coal and Wood under cover.
